FOREWORD

Following the desires of the class of '29, we the Seniors of '31 publish the third edition of the Galesburg High School Souvenir. It is our purpose to provide a memento of our school days for all students, alumni and others interested in our school affairs.

In order to express our appreciation for the service he has rendered and the deep interest he has taken in our school's welfare, we, the Class of '31, dedicate this, the Third Edition of the G. H. S. Souvenir, to Dr. L. V. Rogers.

GALESBURG HIGH SCHOOL

Our two-year accredited school is one of the largest Class D schools in Kalamazoo County. It has one of the best athletic fields in the County, consisting of about five acres, which includes a football field, baseball diamond, cinder track and several tennis courts.

We also have a fine teaching staff, with nearly all academic subjects taught by teachers with degrees. Our commercial department offers work in shorthand, typewriting and bookkeeping, and our library is well supplied with reference and fiction books. We offer chemistry, physics and biology every year, which is a great aid to those who are preparing for engineering and medicine.

Last, but not least, we have a fine building, which is modernly equipped and taken care of in the most sanitary manner, and is an enjoyable place to go to school.

THE SENIORS OF NINETEEN THIRTY-ONE

We'd like to help you fix in mind
The group of seniors here;
In our class of nineteen thirty-one
We have twenty-six this year.

First, we'll take our class president,
Les Kinney, nicknamed "Pat;"
At basketball he's sure a star,
And he's not so slow with ball and bat.

Another athletic star is Wilson,
Whom we know as "Chuck".
Robert Bolton and Johnie Warren
In basketball sure get the luck.

Some say Claude Gifford 's bashful,
But not Bob Van Sickler and Dick Blake
For they always keep something doing
And are noted for the noise they make.

When it comes to the ninth hour,
Irwin Jones is a popular guest; ,
Loren Senf is never invited
As he'd rather leave with the rest.

Now meet our class shiek, Mr. Bresson,
And Hubert Roelof tall and slim—
If it wasn't for Edward Wheeler
The girls would all fall for him.

Now comes Ilah, Maxine and Dorothy,
The three with the curly hair,
Who will enroll at a hospital
And train to become nurses fair.

When we choose our honor students,
Betty, Elizabeth and Grace you'll find;
To Ruth Rice we give special mention—
She left her original class behind.

If it's music you would ask,
Josephine and Bethel are a pair;
With Bethel at the piano
Josephine's voice fills the air.

Mable Kirklin and Helen Simon
Long have they debated;
Many honors they've won for us,
For which we are elated.

Miriam Krieger is quiet and shy,
From Augusta comes all her joys;
A right good time has Mary Wood—
Happiest where there is a noise.

Cupid darted in and took his toll
When Florence Austin became Mrs. Buck
We've now presented them each to you,
Farewell to all—lets hope for luck.

—Olive McGowan

CLASS OF '31

The senior class of thirty-one
Is a class of great renown;
There are more pupils in it
Than any class around.

When they started out as freshies
Their number was thirty-two;
And now this year as seniors
It's reduced by three times two.

Their president, "Pat" Kinney,
Has fame in all his sports,
With only one exception,
'Tis on the tennis court.

The football players therein
Numbered up to nine;
They made three-fourths the backfield
And most all the line.

They are the first in Galesburg
A debate team to have;
And while they are on it
A good team we'll have.

One thing I thought peculiar
About this famous class—
The good old game of basketball
Is not played by any lass.

And in this class of classes
There are five more boys,
They played the game of basketba!!
As well as with small toys.

If you should like to find the names
Of any in this group,
Just look through your annual
And give them all a whoop!

—Milton Stager

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

The members of the troop meet every Friday after school in the gymnasium or kindergarten.

The group is composed of four patrols: Wilma Solomon, leader, Patrol No. 1 and Dorothy Simon second leader; Vida Lowe is leader of Patrol No. 2 and Rosalie Alm is second leader; Ruth Southworth is leader of Patrol No. 3 and Betty Freer is second leader; Gertrude Walker, our only first class scout, is leader of Patrol No. 4 and Lois Grosswiler is second leader.

The Council is composed of Mrs. R. G. Southworth, Mrs. Grosswiler, Mrs. Lowell Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Harper, Mrs. Elden Burgess, and Mrs. Paul Neale.

BOY SCOUTS

Troop 52, Boy Scouts, is composed of twenty members of whom sixteen are tenderfeet. Charles A. Clay is Scoutmaster and Winthrop F. Ford, Assistant. The Troop Committee is composed of G. F. Raymond, chairman, David Burgess, C. L. Schroder, R. W. Harper and A. P. Taylor. The Fall meetings were held in the school gym until Masons kindly offered the use of their hall. During the year there have been outdoor excursions each month with two overnight hikes. Also they have taken over the duty of Safety patrol, that is, guiding the children across the main four corners as they are on their way to and from school.

There was silence for some time and then Ralph Fry frantically waved his hand for recognition.

"Well, Ralph," said Miss Disbrow.

"Miss-chiefs," Ralph announced, proudly.

John Warren after being relieved from duties in Economic Class:

My dear Mr. Tag and Class:

That wonderful class of '31 which is full of beauty, brains and honor.

I am very sorry for what I said and did yesterday on that glorious day of Monday, April 20, 1931.

I will try to make amends under
these conditions:

1. That the class of Economics of
1931 will quit picking on me;
2. That Mr. Tag ask me no more questions that I cannot answer;
3. That when I am sleeping I am not to be disturbed;
4. That Richard Blake quit his mutterings so as not to bother my concentration;
5. That when I am speaking to some one I wish that Mr. Tag would not interrupt me;
6. That the next time that I am kicked out of that class I refuse to re-enter.

For Dick will be hungry and tired, Ma,

So give me a gram of Phosphate,

Now give me a chunk of casine, Ma,

And give me the oxygen bottle, Ma,
